Individual Rhythmic Gymnastics: 2020 Olympic Games, 2021 World Games qualifiers confirmed

BAKU (AZE), 20 September 2019:

Following today's Individual All-around final of the 37th Rhythmic Gymnastics World Championships, the International Gymnastics Federation (FIG) herewith confirms the lists of qualifiers for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games and The World Games 2021 for individual Rhythmic gymnasts.

The lists have been published on the FIG website as follows:

2020 Olympic Games - On the event calendar page.

2021 World Games - On the event calendar page.

For Rhythmic Groups, tomorrow's General Competition is qualifying for Tokyo 2020 with the top five groups not yet qualified earning an Olympic berth.

Individual Rhythmic gymnasts will have another opportunity to earn a place at the Tokyo Olympics for their country in the 2020 World Cup series, which will comprise four stages in April - with three places up for grabs.

The remaining route to Tokyo is via the 2020 continental championships, where there will be one place available in each continent's individual and group events respectively.
